WELCOME TO RENAISSANCE. . .

When you join Renaissance, you join an elite group of highly competent, well-trained agri-professionals. Our consultants' dedication, commitment and tireless efforts are helping to move Renaissance into the forefront of dairy and livestock nutrition.

Renaissance consultants deliver technology to dairy and livestock producers. They recommend sound nutrition and management practices; formulate balanced, cost-effective rations based on available forages; develop and maintain business in their area; deliver high-quality products; monitor cows and production records; and much more!

We're pleased to offer positions that make a difference in the dairy and livestock industries today and into the future.

We'll take you from where you are . . . and provide the support and training to help make you a successful professional. Our goal is to have people devoted to quality and progress, people willing to work hard and appreciate the rewards of their efforts over and over again. We're a team. And we want people with the drive to make things happen today and tomorrow. People with a mission.

Renaissance personnel fill many roles:

- ➔ Nutritional Consultants
- ➔ Farm Management Specialists
- ➔ Product Sales & Service
- ➔ Business Professionals

We do not believe in "just selling," but believe in selling what is needed to "do the job right." This helps ensure both the progress and profitability of the farm. Our products and services are value and results-driven, geared toward a positive outcome time after time.

We offer:

- ❑ In-House Nutritional Support
- ❑ Sales & Marketing Support
- ❑ Ongoing Training

If you are a self-starter, with a strong work ethic, then a career with Renaissance may be for you! But, don't take our word for it! Consider these comments by people who are already on our team...

"Renaissance has helped me define issues within the [ag] industry, and enabled me to make a difference on farms – implementing solutions for success. It has given me the opportunity of being on the cutting edge as a nutrition and farm management consultant, while keeping the learning curve sharp so I am always up to date. Renaissance offers great support to encourage growth in my business every day."

Eric Staudinger – Dodgeville, WI

"This is a great opportunity! You'll put in long hours, but enjoy it, because you know it will benefit you and your family. It is a nice mix of mental and physical labor. We have tremendous support people, continuing education programs, delivery systems and quality products. These things add up to success if you're willing to invest the time and effort."

Mark Einink - Panama, NY

"Joining Renaissance was one of the best things I have done. They gave me a great opportunity. The teamwork and support have helped me to be successful and see results."

Neal Salyards - Martinsburg, PA

If you're looking for a change...a chance...a great future - this is it! It is up to you to make things happen and we're here to work with you every step of the way.
